

Trans-institutional Collaboration for Disaster Management in Local Governments of Japan

Asian Disaster Reduction Center
Executive Director
Koji Suzuki

Decision Making Support in Emergency

Hyogo Phoenix DRR System, since 1996

- Integration & sharing of disaster information, impact simulation, emergency operation resource needs simulation
- Connected to all the local government in Hyogo Prefecture with 306 terminals

• Share information on EQ, Weather, Flood, Geography

• Time line development & management

• Web meeting, Twitter information

Disaster Response HQs

Trans-prefectural Collaboration (1)

関西広域連合 UNION OF KANSAI GOVERNMENTS

【Outline】

- 10 prefectures 4 designated cities
- Established since 2010
- Hyogo responsible for trans-prefectural DRR policies

Trans-prefectural Collaboration (2)

Responsibilities of Hyogo

Disaster Management Planning

Emergency response & mitigation plan for trans-prefectural disaster events

Emergency response coordination

Initial response system, needs assessment for emergency rescue operations, collaboration with designated partner local governments

Collaboration with relevant organizations

9 local governments union in Kanto, Governors association in Kyushu,

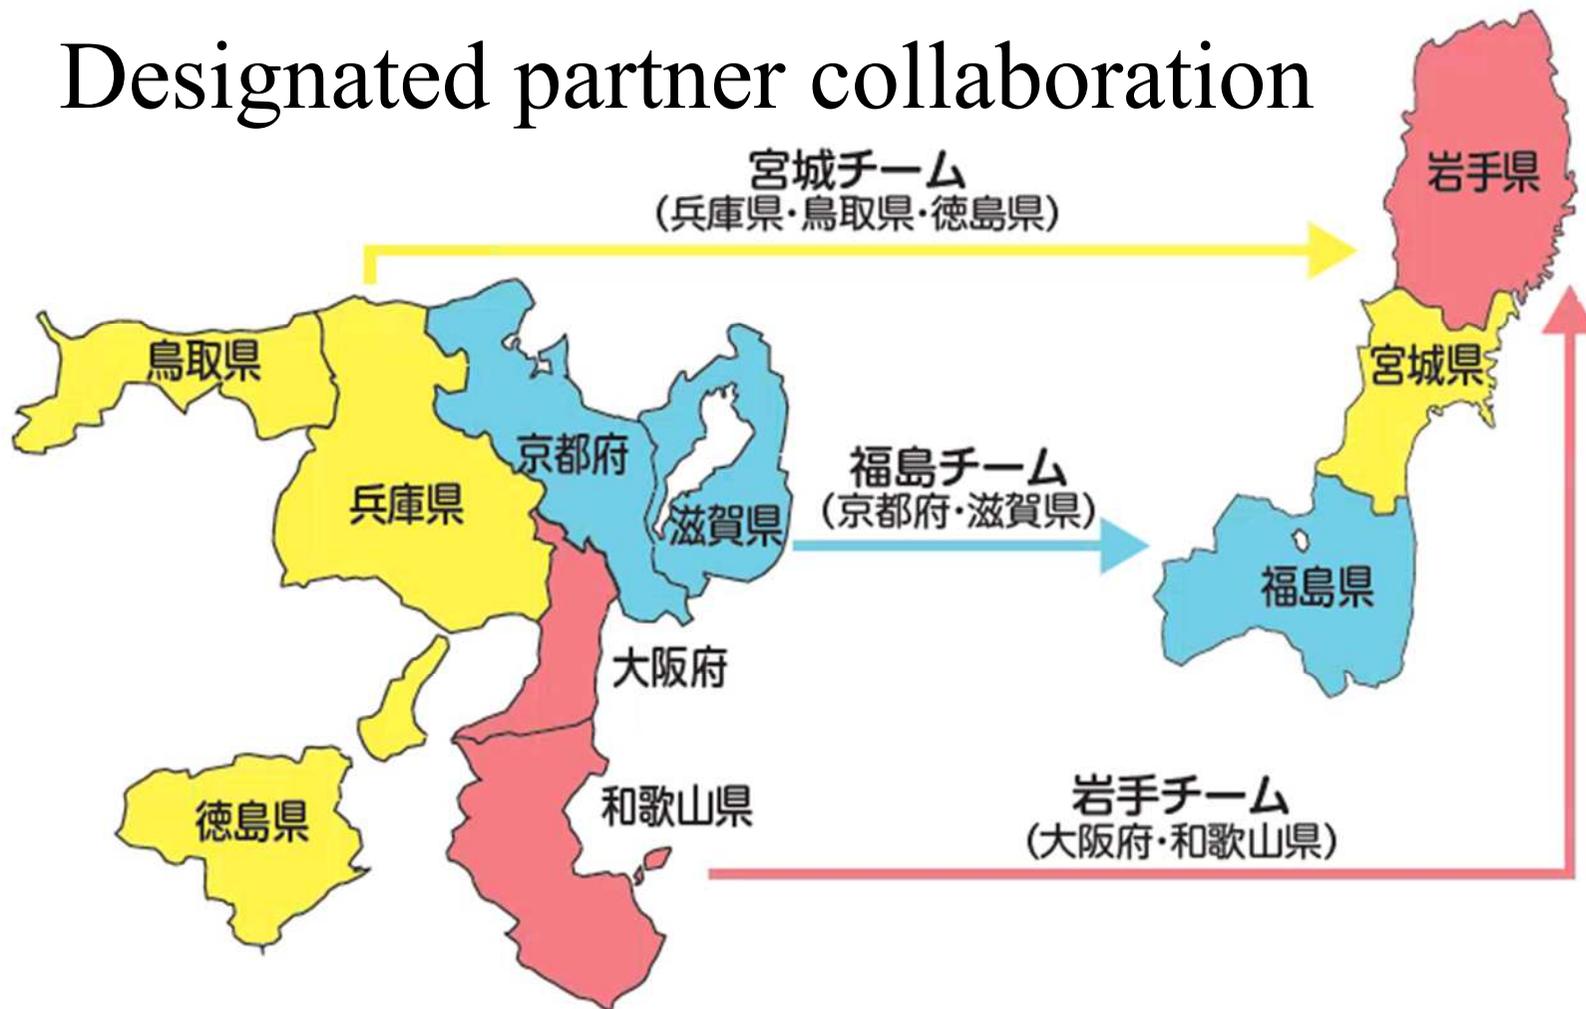

DRR project

Kansai Union DRR Information System. Capacity development program, Support policies for people who are unable to return home

Trans-prefectural Collaboration (3)

East Japan Earthquake & Tsunami 2011

Designated partner collaboration

Heavy rainfall, July 2018

【Designated partner local governments】

- Okayama ⇐ Hyogo, Tottori • Hiroshima ⇐ Oosaka, Shiga, Wakayama
- Ehime ⇐ Nara, Tokushima

	Liaison		Shelter operation	Damage assessment				Support by Teaches	Total
	Kurashiki City	Okayama Pref.	Kurashiki City	Kurashiki City	Yakake Town	Ihara City	Satosho City, Yakake City
Hyogo Pref.	119		128	140	18			158	564
Kobe City			84	34	6				124
Torroii Pref.		118	200	65		15	15		413
total	119	118	412	239	24	15	15	158	1,100

(7月10日から8月31日まで、のべ人・日)

