Announcement of ICHARM Webinar 2021 - Interaction with students and young researchers -

Scheduled at 14:00-16:25 of Monday, December 13, 2021

I would like to acknowledge your kind support and cooperation for the activities of the International Centre for Water Hazard and Risk Management (ICHARM).

Established in March 2006 as a UNESCO category II centre at the Public Works Research Institute (PWRI), ICHARM has since been working on research, training and networking activities on water-related disasters and their risk management.

As ICHARM's activities are recognized as very unique not only inside Japan but also worldwide, we believe that it is of great importance to disseminate our activities and acquire better understanding and cooperation from relevant organizations.

In this regard, it is my great pleasure to inform you that we are planning to organize the "ICHARM Webinar 2021," as addressed below, especially welcoming students of universities and young researchers of relevant institutes.

Time and Date: 14:00-16:25, Monday, December 13, 2021

Style: Webinar in English and Japanese.

Registration: Click the link below. Registration is required by Friday, December 3, 2021.

(The webinar URL will be sent by Friday, December 10, to those registered.)

Webinar Schedule: See the attached.

I would like to ask you to introduce this online event to students and young researchers at your organization and encourage their active participation.

It would be highly appreciated if those wishing to participate could fill in the registration form, where they can select two themes out of the three choices (1. Meteorology and hydrology, 2. Sediment transport and channel changes, and 3. Disaster risk reduction) for the parallel thematic discussions and ask questions related to the selected themes, if any. We would like to answer typical questions at the webinar.

Thank you very much for your kind attention.

KOIKE Toshio
Executive Director, ICHARM
